What you've been saying so far in 2011 about Mollydooker

'...our first glass of Miss Molly! We love it!!!!' Jeffrey & Cathy Fieldman, the beautiful folks who came up with the Miss Molly name

'Sarah, Sparky, Michelle & Tarlie, I absolutely had the most fantastic time at the Winemaker's Dinner you hosted in Nashville! It was so very generous of you and most appreciated, as I noticed there was not an empty seat in the house! Sparky, you kept my whole table laughing (increasingly as we drank more!) the entire night and your stories are just great. Your enthusiasm and love for your family, your wines, (and your new career as a top ranked go cart racer) is contagious and so genuine. We loved hearing your Mom speak as well and I was happy to hear that my personal favorite (Enchanted Path) was made for her. I was even able to teach Scott a few things about Molly Dooker-believe me, that doesn't happen often when it comes to wine! And I could also brag about the fact that my blended wine lost by just one vote at my table! He was very proud indeed! I wanted all of you to know too that my guest (an Ironman Triathlete) appreciated the Dinner more than you could possibly imagine. She has been in training all year for the triathlon in November, so suffice it to say, the indulgence meant so very much to her! Thanks again to all of you for such a fantastic evening!' Tonya Morgan, Nashville TN

Ambassador Joe Segel hosted Sparky and the team last month for a very special and intimate winemaker's dinner. Check out the gorgeous photos Joe sent along.

Cowboy and Mah-Mah's words, straight from the heart - 'Dearest Miss Anita & Dearest Miss Simone - If there were a way to make you 2 in charge of the world, what a beautiful world it would be indeed! You & your teams have followed through on each and every concern I have had regarding the delivery of my gifts of the 'boxes of Love' wine. I know that Sarah & Sparky pay you, but, if there were something that Mah-Mah and I could do for you, we would be so glad to do it for you! Tell Sparky & Miss Janet (Mum!) that we are so sorry that we did not have time to spend talking with them, but when Sparky told me they was haided for Whitefish, Montana the very next day and then to Iowa the night after that, I told Mah-Mah and the rest of our party to leave them alone and maybe they could get some sleep! Please let me know how much we love them and that they are always welcome on the Wolf Mountain! Adios, Cowboy'

Cynthia from New York (one of our newest Velvet Lounge members) is just the sweetest -
Dear Tarlie, I am truly honored and very, very excited! I do love the Mollydookers and I have been so pleased with the service extended to me every time I have ordered from the website! Of course I buy the wines locally as well. I need to tell you that the best gift I ever received, was the 2009 Velvet Glove that was presented to me this past February on my 50th birthday by some of my dear friends who are also big, big fans! I almost lost consciousness when I opened the package! I never thought I would ever get the opportunity to taste it and look forward to trying it soon! (I haven't opened it yet). Please pass along my gratitude to Sarah and Sparky and all of you! You really are a great team! I only wish I could get buy more! My absolute favorite is the Carnival of Love which I have been fortunate enough to indulge in every single year it was made! The Mollydookers have brought so much joy to me and my friends.....I can't thank you all enough. I promise to indulge more regularly once my kid graduates from college. Thank you again'

Bravo team! Mark of Granger, IN had these kind words to share - 'Good Afternoon Janet ...First and foremost let me say thanks for a great evening together at the Villa Macri in Indiana! It was truly a special time, and you must be proud of the accomplishments the brands and your children have made since 2005. As a marketing person I want to tell you that whomever worked with your family (unless of course it was all Sparky and the gang) on your marketing approach was spot on. The dinners are an outstanding way to personalize the business and create enthusiasm. Bravo on a job well done!!!!...'

WOW - what fantastic feedback! Milli King of Morton's The Steakhouse - Denver Tech, Englewood, CO recently hosted one of our events and wanted to share this with friends of Mollydooker - 'Hi Janet, Sparky and Krissy! Happy Thursday! Thank you so much for hosting a beautiful winemaker dinner with us Tuesday evening! We received rave reviews from so many of the guests attending! They absolutely loved your event! It was our pleasure welcoming you and your guests! We were honored you selected our location and hope you'll come back to visit again! Best wishes with your upcoming events! Sincerely, Milli - P.S. We've been completely overwhelmed by the love and support we are getting from all over the world regarding the Velvet Glove. Read on for one of the many emails we have received... 'Dear Janet, I was heartbroken to hear the news about the Velvet Glove. Heartbroken, first of all, for all of you at Molly Dooker Wines who work so hard to bring your phenomenal wines to us humble enthusiasts. Heartbroken, also, for the loss of such an incredible wine in such a tragic way, as well as the loss that we, the humble Molly Dooker enthusiasts feel. Your wines - your company - have been such a big part of my life for years now, often being the common thread in bonds that I have formed with other enthusiasts. (This is the most I've ever used the word 'enthusiast'!) Sarah and Sparky's decision to resist raising the price is applaudable, to say the least. Congratulations to all of you who are a part of such a praiseworthy company. Not only are your wines outstanding, but your ethics are exceptional. Thank you for standing out. Cheers! -Claudia, FL

Anita, our bright and bubbly Helping Hand team leader received this beautiful comment from Diane of rural Vermont - What a wonderful, creative company you have, and friendly people!

Cheers to Glenda and Gary of Cairns (Queensland, Oz) for their words of love and support following the crash landing of our beloved Velvet Glove - To Janet and everyone at Molly Dooker, We were so sad to hear about the loss of all those cases of your wonderful Velvet Glove. We visited with our friends in April and we have been meaning to get in touch to thank you all for a most wonderful time we will never forget. We have raved to everyone in Cairns about your wines and the wonderful people we met when we visited. We know how much love and care and part of yourselves that goes into the making of your wine and we can't even begin to imagine the disappointment you must all be feeling. Our tour with Janet was amazing, she was so warm, knowledgeable and generous with her time. We were even given a great lunch. Everyone we met was friendly, professional and we could see and feel the pride staff had to be part of such a wonderful winery. Once again thank you to Janet and everyone we met and thinking of you all at this time. Glenda and Gary

Hi Sparky & Sarah, About eighteen months ago an amazing human being walked his way into my life. Needless to say that life has not been the same since. Not very long after we met, this recently widowed man had stolen my heart for good. It was not long after that that I was introduced to the two biggest gifts someone could ever receive, his beautiful young daughters. Together they have made me the luckiest woman on earth and as of last December, when all three of them proposed to me, I am so happy and proud to say they are my family. Along our journey, we have celebrated almost every memory and milestone with a very special guest...Molly Dooker! Introduced to us by a friend at about the same time our romance began, we have now spent every holiday, celebration, and many unforgettable nights, with a bottle of either The Boxer, Two Left Feet, Blue-Eyed Boy or Carnival of Love. Last fall, we had the honor of meeting you (Sparky and Mum) at the event held at Morton's in Miami, Florida. We had a great night with my wonderful sister-in-law and her husband as well as the very friend that introduced us to Molly. It is no secret that Molly Dooker is always a guest at our home, so much so that even our daughters now know about "the shake". Therefore when it was time to purchase the wine for our upcoming wedding on August 6th, we worked with our local wine shop to place an order for our very special day. I'm so excited to be able to say that the wine served to all our guests on the night of our wedding will be the 2009 Blue-Eyed Boy (in honor of the year we met) and the 2010 Violinist. It seemed truly fitting to have our guests toast with and enjoy the very same wine that has been with us through so many special moments in our relationship. An extremely private person, I've never even dreamed of writing a letter such as this one. However as the date of our wedding nears, I wanted to thank you for your exceptional wines, we have truly enjoyed every single bottle with each other and those we love. I hope that we can one day make it to McLaren Vale and visit you in person, until then keep the bottles coming! Best regards, Natalia' - FL

Simone, one of our helping hands received these amazing comments on what a fantastic job she does from Mollydooker Mate, Mike LeFevre of Texas 'Sarah & Sparky, A few months back I was at a restaurant in Boulder, Colorado and my girlfriend happened to stumble on your wine, The Boxer. We both thoroughly enjoyed it and I decided to purchase a bottle of it and Enchanted Path for her birthday. Since I live in Texas and the wine essentially has to cross a desert to get here, temperature was an issue, and I began to worry when a weather delay was put on my wine. I emailed Helping Hand and received a phone call back from Simone very quickly. I would just like to say that you should hire more people like her (if there are any). She took the time to keep me updated (by multiple emails and phone calls) as to the status of my order, and was able to ensure that my order would be delivered in time. I just got it today and I could not be more pleased. Most companies like to say that they take customer service seriously, but at the end of the day don't walk the walk. Mollydooker is clearly not one of those companies. Your wine is enough reason to order from you, but the superb customer service offered by Simone really takes it to a whole different level. Thank you very much for creating an exceptional wine, and an exceptional company. Best Regards, Mike LeFevre'

A Mollydooker Coincidence - or an infinitely small world by Sparky's Dad and Vera

'Hello every one:

Coincidence No 1:

Canadian Trip

The tour included a dinner cruise on Lake Ontario from Toronto. We walked along the pier towards what we thought was our vessel for the evening. It was magnificent: wow this will be good! It was called the Matthew Flinders! Oh no sorry that's not our vessel it's the one next to it! Watch you don't slip on the steep gang plank. OK that's not a coincidence it's a divergence! Here's the coincidence:- We shared a table with a couple from Burpengary just north of Brisbane. We each ordered a glass of the optional wine (not included in the price!) and started talking about the wine industry in general. We mentioned that Sparks & Sarah were wine makers in McLaren Vale exporting top class wines to the United States. The lady looked at me with a wry expression on her face and said "you are not talking about Mollydooker Wines are you?". It turned out that their eldest son lived in Houston in Texas where he'd met and married a French lady. For the wedding breakfast she had chosen and supplied French wines and he had chosen and supplied several cases of Australian wines: Mollydookers. When our friends had visited their second son who lives in New Jersey for a family reunion they were joined by number one son and his wife bringing more Mollydookers to celebrate. After the tour our friends were going on to stay with their son in New Jersey and Mollydooker coincidences was top of the list for discussion. So how's that! So hope you are all well. More tales to come. Much love Dad & Vera'

Some positive feedback from Frank Coletti of CA about Vinfillment, our fulfillment house - 'To All at Mollydooker: I wanted to let you know that I ordered some Carnival of Love; Blue Eyed Boy and The Boxer wines recently and went to NAPA to pick them up at VinFillment. I could not believe that it was so easy and quick as I was in a hurry and went to VinFillment, got the wines, which were ready for me upon arrival, and was back in my office in 2-1/2 hours. My office is in Sacramento, CA. - about an hour from NAPA. All friends of Mollydooker wines, especially those living in the San Francisco Bay, and the surrounding areas, should know that it was that easy and fast to get the wines that we enjoy so much. I had relatives visiting from Connecticut and we all loved MD wines for the next three days. They said that they wished that they could get these fine wines as easily. I thought that I would pass this along to help everyone understand it is a great little trip to VinFillment. Thank you, Frank'

Our great mate, Josh Warsaw of CA dropped Janet a line as he wanted to share this special moment with us, his beautiful parents drinking the Carnival of Love on their 35th Wedding Anniversary.

He even found time to educate the restaurant staff saying '...we were at a great restaurant called Jillian's. I gathered the bartender and all the servers and the sommelier and taught them the Mollydooker Shake haha!'

'...Thanks for giving me the opportunity to help Krissy at the WS Tour event in Las Vegas. I'm not sure about the total event attendance, but, people were lined up an hour early to get in, and, our booth was very busy the whole time - almost couldn't pour the wine fast enough - the crowd in front of our table was two or three deep most of the evening...I know that our early visitors were telling their friends that they had to try whatever we were serving because it was really special. I heard 'WOW' many times throughout the evening (and, some OMG's) as I watched them taste the Velvet Glove. I also noticed that many exhibitors stopped by because people were telling them about our amazing wine. Various wine reps and winemakers stopped by more than once...We never had any lulls in the action and it was really a thrill to see and hear everyone raving about our wine. I hope to be able to help with these events in the future. Love to all, John' – John Mulholland

'Wow!! That expression applies to more than just your wines. Thank you so much! Katie and I always love to talk about (and serve) Mollydooker wines whenever we're with friends and the story of "Sip It Forward" is always a hit, speaking of which it's time to order some more. The appreciation is all ours, Sarah, Sparky and the entire Mollydooker family has been more than generous to us and it was a pleasure to meet everyone and spend some lovely days in Napa. Hopefully one day we'll make to Australia to visit you guys, I couldn't think of a better trip! Until then we'll just have hang out in the VL. 'Hi to all the great staff at Molly Dooker, Vivian and I had a wonderful time and enjoyed Russell's tour just so much. We came away feeling very special and an even bigger fan of the Left handed bunch at McLaren Vale. A real highlight of our honeymoon, thank you! We shared the remainder of our Carnival of Love this afternoon with our special Host Ray at McLaren Farm Stay and we all were just in awe of just how good the wine is. To Janet and all the girls in the office thanks and we look forward to the arrival of our Makers Dozen. We would love to see you all in Sydney and have no doubt as our friends enjoy our company the special ones will share in the left handed spirit. Kind regards' - Phill & Vivian Dance, NSW

We all thoroughly enjoyed the tour and tasting and the information about how you differentiate yourselves in the wine making process and care for the wines - extremely interesting. Secondly, I would like to thank you for time. Your dedication to your winery and passion really shined through and made the visit even more interesting, Pls. forward our thanks to Sparky for enlightening us on the process of judging the grapes before a decision on when to pick the grapes was made. *"Hi Janet, Sarah and Sparky,
You did it!!! You all finally did it!!! Cheers!!" - Paul, FL*

Mollydooker "The Boxer" Scores a Knock-out Punch - "The balance is what makes this wine classic: it settles somewhere between voluptuous and elegant." A great review by TheWineLady, Deb Lapmardo.

'Hi Sparky, Carl here...As discussed I remember well meeting a highly passionate winemaker from Fox Creek about 15 years ago in the exact same room as we ate on Wednesday. Passion is so important in the wine industry but is sadly lacking in the corporate wine companies that have commoditised wine. Your passion was inspirational in my early learning days of wine. I could now be regarded as a wine tragic with a large underground cellar full of marvellous wines. My wife can't understand why I keep buying wine and the concept – there is no such thing as too much wine. It's great to see you have your own winery and most importantly access to great fruit. I was a big fan of the wines from Classic McClaren and got to know Andrew well. He did some great work with the CM fruit and I still have many of his wines gathering dust in my cellar...You are now custodians of these great vines and wish you well in this exciting venture". – Carl, Eastwood, SA

"In light of the recent back vintage promotion, it got me thinking about you, your wines and what it all means within the greater wine community as a whole. It seems to me that the roots of most traditional vineyards are both literally and figuratively entwined in the past. Often a perception of their best being behind them is assumed as they strive to replicate that "special historic vintage". To me, Mollydooker has adopted a more progressive approach, where the emphasis has always been on the future and bottling a better tomorrow. As a result, you continue to give more to your customers both in the bottle and beyond. Each year, when you think that the wines or experience couldn't possibly get any better...Mollydooker just makes you go WOW all over again!" - Sean and Sara, FL

"A very special thank you for the wonderful tour and tasting yesterday. We were all blown away by the commitment, loyalty and passion shown by each and every member of Mollydooker. We will all do our part in spreading the word of not only the quality of the wines, but the amazing philosophy of this wonderful SA family operation." - Fleur McKenzie, Hahndorf, SA

Blowing away the Competition

'Sparky, It has been some time since I last wrote or saw you. I think the Blue Eyed Boy you shared with Karen and me along with our friends the Omels in Las Vegas at the Wine Spec event was the last time we saw you. Thank you again for sharing that great wine with us! . This past week, I was the host for the winetasting group where I have been a member for 10+ years. All wines were tasted blind and the theme was wines that have been in the Wine Spectator Top 10. As much abuse as the Aussie wines have taken over the past few years, it would be great to have more tasting like this. The majority of the 16 members of this group are not Aussie wine fans...or at least they had taken a hiatus until Sunday nite's tasting. 3 of the 4 Aussie wines simply blew the doors off of the competition. I have to admit that I personally also liked the 2005 Casa Lapostelle Clos Apalta, but the 2 Carnival of Love wines and the Two Hands Bella's Garden were clearly the fan favorites of the night. Thank you again for the great job you continue to do...I was in "The Mark" restaurant in South Bend, IN on Saturday nite and at the bar learned that The Boxer is their best selling wine by the bottle...of course, they were out of it!! Cheers!' - Russ, IL

Our Mollydooker Love Story

'Nerves gave him Two Left feet on our first date. After chatting together with many a Maitre D, resulting in plenty of bottles of Mollydooker with my Blue Green Eyed Boy, I finally loaded up the Scooter and headed his way. The wonderful wine turned us into two little Gigglepots but never left us feeling like we'd been pummeled by a Boxer. You guided us down the Enchanted Path to a virtual Carnival of Love. 'Dear Janet, Albeit belated, I want to extend our heartfelt gratitude to you, Sparky and Krissy for sharing your wines and the Blend A Hand experience with members and friends of the Wine & Food Foundation of Texas in Austin on October 5th. My good friend, college bud and fraternity brother, Wes Marshall, is the wine writer for the Austin Chronicle (and contributor to the San Francisco Chronicle and others). He was my guest at the event and responded with the attached article featuring The Boxer <http://www.austinchronicle.com/gyrobase/Issue/column?oid=oid:1101454>. From previous experience, we had the highest of expectations and you exceeded all. As a result of your generosity we brought in almost $3,500 to the Foundation for its grant and scholarship fund. The feedback from attendees was universally positive. We are still receiving thanks for bringing a new, fun and informative experience to our membership and friends. You give life to the Foundation's mission of education, experience and appreciation of the viticulture and culinary arts. We often say that in the end the wine says it all. But the enthusiasm and the experience you bring to the table proves there is even more than the wine itself (or does all that make it into the wine?). Thanks to you and all the Mollydooker family. Please keep doing what you are doing. We look forward to your next visit. All the best.' - Steve Tipton, President, The Wine & Food Foundation of Texas

'The perfect way to complement a Thanksgiving Feast.' - Jonathan Hooker, Arizona

'Hi Sparky, Thank YOU for making your fabulous wines, and for all of the wonderful service from all of you, It is always a pleasure. Can't wait for my delivery, so excited. thank you again!' - Colette Smith, California

'Here is a picture of the wine on our balcony at Port Douglas. Thought you might enjoy the picture. I think we both agree that our favorite was the Goose bumps wine. It was amazing. They were actually all very great! We are suddenly taking up a new interest in Australian wines.' - Todd and Amanda Woodcock, Washington

'Thank you so much. Most wineries (and i am on a huge number of lists) could learn a lot from your communication. Thanks.' - Rick Waks, California

'I can't thank you enough for all the help you and your colleagues have given me over the last couple of days. I am so thankful for that and extremely excited to be able to send your lovely wines to my sister for her birthday on Thursday. You are all wonderful helping hands (right and left) and I am so grateful for your help. I've experienced some of the best customer service EVER from your team. Thanks again.' - Vicki Hammeal, Florida

'I wanted to thank you all again for the memorable and precious time that my wife and I spent at your winery... Sure, we were very impressed with the opera house (who wouldn't be), but without a doubt, our fondest memory of the entire 3 week trip was our visit to your fine establishment. Leigh was such a delightful, soft spoken and sincere man with a true love and understanding of the vines. We could tell that he actually "felt" the vines, he just knows what they need... Is there such a thing as a "Vine whisperer"? If there isn't yet, I think Leigh is the pioneer. After spending some time with Leigh, we were then introduced to Peter who showed us around the grounds and the winemaking equipment and how your exquisite elixirs are made. Throughout this process, Peter explained what the term "fruit weight" meant. I think this term is rather exclusive to your winery. After explaining what it meant, he then gave us several barrel tastings of different "fruit weights" to show us the difference. I was very pleased that I managed to score 100% on all the barrel tastings that he gave us, even though they were in the "ugly stage" and not what I am used to tasting. Afterwards, we returned back to the main office where a lunch was laid out for us, and Leigh joined us again, along with a bottle of your 2009 Giggopot, Carnival of Love and Velvet Glove. I must say, although I do love your 05's, the 2009 are truly remarkable. Again, hat's off to you all for such a great vintage. I can hardly wait until my cellar is well stocked with that amazing vintage. I have already placed (an as yet) an unconfirmed order for a case of each of the above and the Enchanted Path. As if all this were not enough for anyone already, as we were about to leave, Peter grabbed a bag and handed us the unfinished wine to take with us. AND THEN....we get presented with a magnum of your Carnival of Love which is now the most prized trophy I own in my cellar (of 5000 bottles) signed by pretty much everyone but Sparky (sorry we missed you sir) as he was apparently in the States during our visit. Words cannot properly express our gratitude or our feelings, so please for now, accept our heartfelt thank you, our open invitation to Peter and Leigh to come and visit us in our home in Canada and our continued loyalty and patronage, as a token of our esteem. Warm regards.' - Bill & Neola, Canada

'Just a note to thank you for the exciting wines which continue to bring so joy to our family. Any time we open a bottle of any Mollydooker what was just a meal becomes a celebration. We look forward to meeting Sparky at Morton's Steakhouse in Santa Ana on November 2 and for many more years of drinking Mollydooker. Cheers.' - Jack White, California

'Thank you so very much for spending your valuable time responding to a small time player , like me. However, there is no bigger supporter of Mollydooker than me. My 1200 bottle cellar is dwindling away, but will never be without your wine. Yours in bacchanalia, Wineoceros.' - Scott Stuart, Arkansas

'(I) thought you might enjoy this picture from the night...lol! We love your wine and had a blast! Love how you are thinking about the wine industry and taking it to the next level!!!' - Nicole Mathison, Georgia

'I found the Maitre'd on a steakhouse wine list in Indianapolis the other night & killed three btls for you. We taught the waiter how (& why) to do "the shake" & created quite a scene as the other diners were trying to figure out what all the commotion was about. It became a big promo for MD wines & a few of the other tables ordered as well. I'll continue to carry the flag.' - Joel Chechik, California

'I wanted to drop you a note and say "thank you" again for paying us a visit in Nashville! It was a treat to meet you and have the opportunity to chat (we talked about the 2006 Matire D being the first wine that I ever tasted). The whole event was incredibly well done, and I do hope that you will come back and visit soon! Much success, and all the best to you and the "MollyDooker Team".' - Syd Rodocker, Tennessee

'We sampled the Violinist and the Blue Eyed Boy Shiraz at a recent dinner at 13 Restaurant with the wine buyer for Havana Blue and his fiancée, the manager for Café Amici. The staff at 13 and everyone else loved both wines. I have attached a picture for you (above). We will send more as restaurants open back up and we sample more bottles. Thank you again for the samples, posters and gift boxes. They will definitely help spread the word about and excitement around the wines.' - Jon Foster, Premier Wines & Spirits, Virgin Islands

'Fantastic event! (Blend a Hand in Nashville, TN) All the wines were outstanding. A delight to finally meet Sparky and Janet. Thanks for your help!' - Bruce Esworthy, Tennessee

'Our Community / Region was very pleased to have Sparky, Janet and Krissy in town. The event (at Montana's Rib & Chop House, Meadville) was simply awesome. The Molly Dooker team made it very easy for us to work with them and the advanced assistance made for an evening that all of our guests enjoyed. To a person, everyone asked if we would see the folks again next year!' - Charlie Bish, Pennsylvania
