Mollydooker Wines 'Label Our Lefty' Contest

Mollydooker offers trip for two to McLaren Vale as prize for naming its new wine.

McLaren Vale, South Australia, August 1, 2011. What's in a name? You tell us. Mollydooker, the fun-filled McLaren Vale winery, is on a world-wide search for the perfect name for its newest wine. The winning name will forever be displayed on the label of their new Sparkling Shiraz and will become part of the flavourful family of award winning Mollydooker wines.

"Four years ago we asked our friends to help us name our charity wine," said Sarah Marquis, who with her husband Sparky, founded Mollydooker. "Our winners (who suggested 'Sip it Forward') came to our USA release parties as our guests, and we all had a ball."

"This time we want to make it even more special, so we are opening the contest up world wide, and we will bring the winner and a guest to McLaren Vale to spend time with us at the winery."

"The new wine is going to be a partner to The Boxer Shiraz, which is our most popular wine," explained Sarah. "We have kept a tankful of Boxer at the winery, and we will be re-fermenting it to make a Sparkling Shiraz. At $25 it is going to be lots of fun - a wine full of rich, long lasting fruit flavors and tiny fizzy bubbles. We see it as an ideal companion for a party, a BBQ, or any kind of celebration. All we are missing is the name, and we are asking for help with that."

"We are really looking forward to bringing the winners to visit us," added Sparky, "we'll be taking them through the winery and showing them how we make the wine, and they will get to walk in the vineyards where the wine they named was grown. If they come during harvest, they will even be able to sit under the gum trees with us, hand crushing grapes and tasting the juices, and helping us decide when to pick. We live in a beautiful part of the world, and we are looking forward to sharing it with them."

Contestants can find the guidelines and enter their name suggestions online at www.LabelOurLefty.com, the contest closes on September 4, 2011 and the winner will be announced on September 15, 2011 (International Mollydooker Day).

Since its first release in 2005, The Boxer has been Wine Advocate's 'Best Value Red Wine in the World' twice, and has polled second on Wine and Spirit's 'Most Popular Shiraz on American Restaurants' Winelists' for the last three years.
