Gareth - 4 December, 2016 - Somerton Park, SA

To all at Mollydooker, as winners of your competition 'Girl on the go' yesterday, I would just like to take the time to say thank you for all that you have done for us.

Unfortunately I couldn't be there for day as I was paying cricket but to come home to a new BBQ, esky and a selection of your amazing wines was a lovely surprise. Renee and the girls had an amazing day yesterday down at your winery and it was just what she needed after and incredibly busy few months. From what I hear your hospitality was exceptional and it was a beautiful setting to enjoy lunch with fantastic wine and great company. We are truly overwhelmed and extremely grateful for being spoiled on behalf of Mollydooker. This once again enhances your reputation as one of South Australia's best wineries. We will definitely be down to see you all again soon. Once again, thank you Mollydooker.

G'day Scott,

Cheers for (your help), very much appreciated. Would've been very easy for you to say, "Sorry we are booked" and left it at that. It's people like yourself that go just that little bit extra to help others that make this world a good place. Thanks mate, keep up the good work, it doesn't go unnoticed.

I wish to thank you for the winery tour and lunch on 23 September 2016. It was the perfect way to celebrate Jim and Sheryl's 60th birthdays and thank you for your hospitality and generosity. Scott's winery tour was informative and entertaining and the lunch was fresh and delicious and showcased the local produce.

The Mollydooker wines are exceptional and you have created an unforgettable experience for those who enjoy your wines. I wish you all the best with your future endeavours and look forward to enjoying Mollydooker wines for many years.

I went to visit my sister in NSW on the weekend. As usual I had two bottles of Mollydooker in my carry on, since I introduced my sister to Mollydooker back in 2013, I get in big trouble if I visit her without taking a bottle or two (and she has the Hunter at her doorstep).

Hi there. My wife and I are huge fans and we buy your wine via wine.com. We hope to someday make a trip to visit you but that is a dream for later! We love all your wines and appreciate the work that you put into them.

My name is Laura and a friend and I did a tour at your winery a couple of weeks ago with Leigh. I was just writing mainly to say thank you so much for such an awesome morning. I've worked in a Vintage Cellars store in Melbourne for over 3 years now and ever since I bought my first Mollydooker wine (Blue Eyed Boy 2012 - for my dad's birthday which he kindly shared), I've been totally in love with them. Your tour was so personal and I loved every single bit of it. I've recommended doing the tour to anyone who will listen to me and I will most definitely continue recommending your wines to people at work. It was such a great experience and I just wanted you to know we really enjoyed ourselves and appreciated everything you shared with us. My only regret is that

*I didn't buy more of the sparkling Verdelho as that's the only thing we don't stock!
Thanks again, and please don't ever stop making wine.*

Just a note to let you guys know I think you're the best. First, thanks very much for upgrading the shipping and getting my order to me. You were thoughtful and generous to do so. Second, I was really impressed by the packaging you used. It's clear that that packaging is well-designed specifically for keeping wines cool during shipment. And it worked well. I confess I was a bit nervous as the temperature here got over 90 this afternoon. But when I opened the package, the wines were still cool. Just when I think Mollydooker is done impressing me, you prove me wrong. And I thought you should know.

I want to personally thank you for allowing us to include Mollydooker at our neighborhood wine walk again this year. We had 350 people roll through our lobby yesterday afternoon and, needless to say, the wines were a huge hit. The local Chamber of Commerce that organizes this event separates the wine walk into 2 distinct routes and we had many comments from guests that chose our route specifically with hopes that we'd be pouring Mollydooker again this year. They were not disappointed!

After being introduced to Mollydooker on the wine walk last year, one person told me he went out and bought a bottle of Velvet Glove. He was anxiously waiting for the right occasion to open it and finally did so last week - almost a year after he bought it. Of course, he and his guests were blown away! The best comment of the day was from someone sampling Girl on the Go - "It's like standing knee deep in a flowing stream as the water rushes around you!" These are just some of the great reactions we had as we poured away!

Thank you for making this important day for The Guesthouse Hotel so special. I look forward to seeing you again when your travels bring you back to Chicago!

Thank You for your email as we are huge Mollydooker wine fans. We finally found a retailer here that carries all of your wine. YEA for us. We are exposing your wine to many people in our neighborhood as well as up at our condo in the Mountains. Until they tasted it they had never heard of it. Shake, Shake, Shake is very unique to them. Thanks for adding us to your mailing list.

I work at a restaurant in Sioux Falls, SD, and we do wine Wednesdays where customers and staff get half off wine bottles. I just served a bottle of your 2010 Gigglepote with some friends. I want to compliment you on making such an awesome and unique wine. It blew our minds. Thank you for making great wine.

Simon K - 1 April, 2016 - Adelaide, SA

I hope all goes really well with your harvest this year. I can never speak highly enough about your wines. We had our 20th wedding anniversary on 28/2/16, and shared a bottle of Velvet Glove with my parents just after this during lunch at The Elbow Room. The wine was wonderful.

I attended a business meeting recently whereby we dined at a licensed sushi restaurant. My CEO Steve walked in with a dozen of your 'The Boxer' from 2014 and convinced the restaurant staff for us to have this with our meal. Steve is the type of guy that only drinks red over $100 and nothing but that. He bragged about your wine, saying it was the best wine under $50 EVER! He taught us the special Mollydooker shake and explained why it was necessary. I sat there laughing as i don't usually drink reds as they make my feet swell up. 4 glasses later..... i was still good! So anyway the purpose of this email is just to say a BIG THANK YOU for making this wine and keep up with the great work.

George F - 24 March, 2016 - Surfers Paradise, QLD

My sincerest thanks for an absolutely fantastic day today. We felt very privileged to have been taken behind the scenes of both harvesting and the entire wine making process. Janet was the most hospitable host and made our day very special. Can't wait to receive our order below and hopefully see Sparky and Janet visit us in the Gold Coast for dinner at Waxys or the Hilton.

I have purchased a few bottles of your wine and just opened my very first one - a 2011 Carnival of Love. OMG that was one of the best bottles of wine I have ever had! I am hooked on your Shiraz and sad that I only have one '11 and one '12 left. I heard the 2014 was awesome so thought I better get a couple bottles while I still can. Keep your great wine flowing to the USA!

Steve - 20 March, 2016 - Batavia, IL

Just received my shipment of The Boxer and Blue Eyed Boy. I had planned on waiting until Easter to open, but here I am with a glass of The Boxer which I am thoroughly enjoying. I have been buying your wines for almost 20 years and have never been disappointed. Became a club member in 2015 - smart decision. I look forward to enjoying and sharing your wines and story for years to come.

Karlee & Amanda - 14 March, 2016 - Boise, ID

We are two ladies who work at a wine shop in Boise, Idaho. We are totally obsessed with your wines, your story, your whimsy, and your dedication to such an amazing product. Just wanted to send along a quick note to thank you for your fabulous contributions to the wine world. If we ever find ourselves in Australia, we'd love to shake your left hands.

Mark R - 9 March, 2016 - Oak Solutions, AUS

Thank you for the opportunity to visit today and feed the crew. I wanted to pass on how impressed I was with the 'culture' that you have instilled at 'Mollydooker', all the staff were polite, positive/happy and proactive. It's been a nice build up to vintage and I am sure you are all excited about the pending arrival of 'red' fruit. Your site is so clean, a testament to all of you, as the day to day operations in a winery is so busy and at times a 'pressure cooker' environment, so well done to you and your team. All the best for remainder of vintage, cheers.

William C - 8 March, 2016 - Pensacola, FL

Thanks for the note. That's an old number you were using, sorry. The wines have already arrived and are excellent as usual. Your vintages have spoiled our palates...everything else just doesn't measure up!

David D - 24 February, 2016 - Weston, FL

What a pleasure and a most welcome surprise to spend time with you there at Mollydooker Wines. You (Janet) and Sparky went above and beyond to go to so much trouble for us. We both came away saying that our visit with you folks there will long be cherished and remain a highlight of our trip to Australia and New Zealand. We look forward to staying in touch and wish you and your entire family there the best of successes.

Your marketing is working! I am a Brit on holiday in NZ and was on the train to Greymouth from Christchurch and noticed that the man in the next seat had a Mollydooker hat on. I asked him if he was Australian which he was. We both waxed lyrical about your wines, particularly about the Blue Eyed Boy which I had been drinking recently in England, and he went on about Velvet Glove. So we became mates on the trip thanks to your hat. Please send me one and I will see if I can set Europe "on fire" for your wines!

Mardi T - 8 February, 2016 - Adelaide, SA

Thank you so much for making our stopover at Mollydooker on the weekend such a great experience. Scott, you could tell by the laughter that the nine of us ladies were set for a big day, so thanks for looking after so well and introducing us to your amazing portfolio. Despite the obvious enjoyment of the wine, the ladies also discovered your incredibly themed wine storage bags. Wow! We found it the perfect morning to sit outside on the lounge chairs. Very relaxing, but sadly we were pressed for time otherwise we could have easily sat there for another hour.

Cosima S - 5 February, 2016 - Copenhagen, DNK

Hey, just wanted to send a hello from Copenhagen and voice my excitement about a delivery I received from Purple Wines in Copenhagen today - a box with Enchanted Path and Carnival of Love, hurray. I love your wines, your story and visited your winery a couple of years ago while living in Australia. Then I moved back to Austria - where I am originally from - and am now living in Copenhagen. Anyway, I was happy to cycle (cause that's the way of commuting in Copenhagen) past Purple Wines by coincidence one of these days and from the corner of my eye noticed an all too familiar looking bottle with a boxer on its label. My first order was made the next day and I have since then also attended Mollydooker tastings here in CPH. What a nice memory of Australia - probably my favourite place on Earth. Have a nice weekend!

Peter & Sharon F - 2 February, 2016 - South Australia

G'day Scott, thank you so much for your email. I sincerely apologise for not calling to thank you and Alison for looking after us so well. I've gone to do it several times and haven't had my phone with me. We both thoroughly enjoyed the wonderful tour and tasting- the four hour time frame might have been a giveaway. We've taken the opportunity to tell all our friends about the experience so I'm sure you will be seeing us again. Thank you also for the photo to remember the day. All the best to you and the Mollydooker team and good luck with this year's vintage.

Yvette W - 27 January, 2016 - Yeerongpilly, QLD

Thank you for the call... I would be grateful if you could send me an e-mail notification when the next Winemakers dozen is released. I should mention that I was at the cellar door last week and enjoyed one of your tour + lunch with some friends - my hubby - Simon Wilson booked it! It was fabulous and thoroughly enjoyable... and just like going to a friend's house it was so relaxing and welcoming. A far cry from the fancy corporate style of some vineyards... the fact that we were eating in the household kitchen with carrots from the veggie patch was quite magic. It really was like going for a family lunch... I think half the family did pop in to say hello and grab a little something from the fridge. It reminded me of going to stay with my grandma on the Cornish coast of England during school holidays... my recommendation would be - don't change a thing...

and perhaps even market it as 'family lunch'... you could even try firing up the bbq and having a 'family barbeque' too... it was top notch... absolutely magic, thank you.

I'd like to say a big THANK YOU to Sarah and gang for your hospitality, your fantastic food and of course the beautiful, luxurious wines you produce. It was great to meet you all, the whole day really was quite a special experience hard not to be inspired by your passion. You guys are making truly exceptional wines. Will be back soon.
